

HPD Incident #: 78382107
Date: Monday, May 28, 2007
Location:

Name: Unknown
Time: 4:00PM

Offense: Agg Robbery

On May 28, 2007 at approximately 4:00 pm the Complainant in this case heard a knock at the front door of his residence. The Complainant opened his door and observed one black male and two hispanic males standing on his front porch. The suspects placed masks over their faces, produced a shotgun and pistol, and forced their way into the Complainant's home. The suspects held the Complainant at gunpoint and searched his residence for signed sports memorabilia. Before the suspects left the location with several items of memorabilia (autographed baseballs and bats) one hispanic male suspect took the Complainant's credit card. This stolen credit card was later used at a Citi Trends store located at 1000 Federal Road by a hispanic female. Pictures of the female who used the credit card and a male that was with her in the store at the time of the purchase are included in this report. The description of the suspect is of one of the three suspects that robbed him at his residence. The photo is of a female that used the complainant's stolen card.
